WARNING: READ BEFORE USING YOUR PLAYSTATION® GAME CONSOLE.

A very small percentage of individuals may experience epileptic seizures when exposed to certain light patterns or flashing lights. Exposure to certain patterns or backgrounds on a television screen or while playing video games, including games played on the PlayStation game console, may induce an epileptic seizure in these individuals. Certain conditions may induce previously undetected epileptic symptoms even in persons who have no history of prior seizures or epilepsy. If you, or anyone in your family, has an epileptic condition, consult your physician prior to playing. If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game – dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions – IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

Starting up

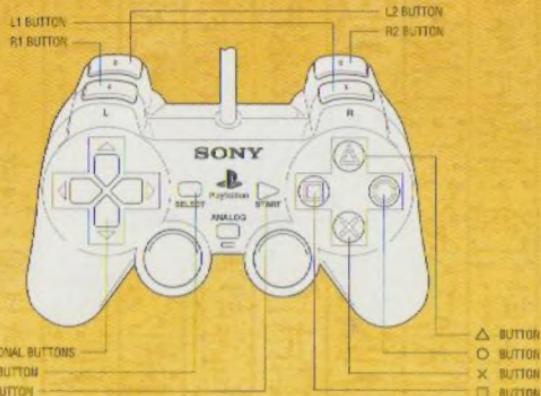

Set up your PlayStation® game console according to the instructions in its PlayStation Instruction Manual. Make sure the power is OFF before inserting or removing a compact disc. Set your Yu-Gi-Oh! FORBIDDEN MEMORIES game disc in your PlayStation unit and switch the power on. Follow the on-screen instructions to start a game.

Memory Cards

To save game settings and progress, insert a memory card into MEMORY CARD slot 1 (MEMORY CARD slot 2 is not used) of the PlayStation game console before starting play. You can load your saved games from the same card, or from any memory card containing previously saved Yu-Gi-Oh! FORBIDDEN MEMORIES games. For more information on saving and loading, see page 12.

NOTE: Yu-Gi-Oh! FORBIDDEN MEMORIES uses 1 block of memory card data to save each game. Make sure there are enough free blocks on your memory card before commencing play. Do not insert or remove a memory card while saving/loading games or after the power has been turned ON.

DUALSHOCK® analog controller

You may have a controller that looks like this. Button functions on a digital controller are the same as those on an analog controller.

This game does not use the Analog Mode (LED ON). Please play the game in Digital Mode (LED OFF).

You can toggle the vibration function ON and OFF in the OPTIONS SCREEN.

In the words of legends past...

From the fusion of light and darkness are born the powers of chaos.

To summon these powers into the world of reality,

special markers were created.

Over the span of billions of years,

these markers came to be known as...

Duel Monster Cards.

Should a chosen duelist's will be exercised through the cards...

The sealed knowledge of a millennium will be released and revealed.

The knowledge of the cards...

To become one with the knowledge of the Duelist...

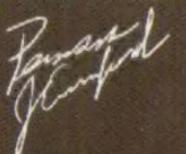

The words on the left were translated from the hieroglyphs carved on a stone slab discovered by a British archaeologist in the early 20th Century during his visit to Egypt. Recent carbon dating analysis revealed that the slab was created sometime in 1400 B.C., a period noted for the reign of the 18th Dynasty of the New Egyptian Empire. Another celebrated discovery from this period is a mural depicting the battle between the youthful Pharaoh who controls the legendary Black Magician and the High Priest known as the Master of the Mystic White Beast.

The slab's hieroglyphs are believed to refer to a point as far back as 3000 B.C. in the very early years of the New Empire—most likely the period noted for the reign of the 2nd Dynasty.

In short, although our company, Industrial Illusion, has re-designed the cards to match our modern age, Duel Monsters boasts a past that can be traced through mankind's history.

It gives me great pleasure to announce that through the efforts of world renowned game publisher Konami, our company's pride and joy—Duel Monsters—has now become available as a video game that can be enjoyed by players all around the world. This project called for a strong and trusting relationship between Konami and Industrial Illusion. It is a partnership achieved through the labors of two men, Mr. Johan Heishin and Mr. Simon S. Muran. I would like to take this opportunity to thank these two gentlemen, who have worked long and hard to make this game a reality.

I sincerely hope that you, the players, will not only be fascinated by this product, the result of our research into ancient history, but will also find this newly evolved version of Duel Monsters to be an enjoyable gaming experience.

Before Returning to the Title Screen...

This game does not have an auto-save feature. Make sure you always save after playing "Campaign", "Free Duel", "Password", and other modes. If you return to the Title Screen without saving, you will lose all the data played up to that point. Remember... SAVE!!!

SAVE

You can save either with the "Save" selection in the Game Menu or by selecting the "Save" command when you enter the Card Shop in the Campaign Mode. Make sure there's a memory card with at least 1 or more open blocks plugged into MEMORY CARD slot 1. After selecting "Save" by means of one of the aforementioned methods, a message will appear to verify your command. Select "Yes" and press the X button to save your data. If you select "No", the save will be cancelled.

LOAD

When you select "Load" in the Title Menu, a message will appear to verify your command. Make sure there's a memory card containing your saved data plugged into MEMORY CARD slot 1, select "Yes" and press the X button to load your data. If you select "No", the load will be cancelled. Upon completing the load, the game will automatically shift to the Game Menu Screen.

SAVE/LOAD Warning

When you load data to continue a previous game, play for a period of time, and decide to save your progress up to that point, you must use the same memory card that contains the data that you loaded. The game-in-progress can only be saved to a memory card that contains your Duelist Code (the I.D. number for your saved data). If you're saving for the first time after starting a "New Game", you can use any memory card available.

CAMPAIGN

In the Campaign Mode, you play the Prince of the Amenhotep Dynasty. As the Prince, you will face many rivals in card battles as you collect the Millennium Items. In the course of the game, you will learn the secret of the Duel Monster Cards and the Millennium Items.

2P DUEL

This is the mode where players can compete against each other. You can modify the number of LP (Life Points), and can also set up a game for handicap play. There are no cards traded for wins or losses in this mode.

How to Play 2P DUEL

1. Select "2P DUEL" in the Title Menu and press the X button. This will call up a verification screen.

At this point, plug Player 1's memory card in MEMORY CARD slot 1 and Player 2's card in MEMORY CARD slot 2. When both memory cards are properly plugged in, press the ○ button.

The decks of both players should be prepared prior to engaging in 2P DUEL.

2. The Competition Rules Screen will appear on-screen. Using the directional buttons, press up/down to select a Menu, and right/left to change the setup. Switching the "In-Hand Cards" to "Open" will allow both players to view each others cards. "Life Points" can be changed in 17 stages, ranging from 1 to 8000 points. Press the START button to commence a duel.

A Special Note on 2P DUEL

In 2P DUEL, details of the cards in-hand and face-down on the field are not displayed openly so that cards can remain hidden from an opponent's view. Deck I.D. Numbers (01-40) are displayed to provide players with a guide to identifying their cards. Prior to battle, it is advisable to note on a piece of paper which card corresponds to which I.D. number.

TRADE

You can trade with or give cards to another player if you both have memory cards. Up to 10 cards can be transferred at once.

Trading Cards

1. Select "TRADE" on the Title Menu Screen and press the X button. Like 2P BATTLE, a verification screen will be displayed. At this point, plug Player 1's memory card in MEMORY CARD slot 1 and Player 2's memory card in MEMORY CARD slot 2. When both memory cards are properly plugged in, press the X button. You can only trade the cards contained in the "Chest". To trade a card in your Deck, you must transfer the card from your Deck to the Chest prior to commencing the trade.

2. A Chest Screen will be displayed for each of the two players (See P.16). Use the up/down directional buttons to select the card you wish to transfer and press the ○ button. Use the right/left directional buttons to scroll a card's data. A selected card will move to the Trade Section at the bottom of the screen. To cancel a selection, press the ○ button.

3. Once card designation has been completed, press the ○ button. When both players have finished designating their cards, a verification message will appear on-screen. If all is well, select "EXECUTE TRADE" and press the ○ button. If either player wishes to re-select their cards, select "RE-SELECT". To quit trading, select "RETURN TO TITLE".

When a trade is being executed, do not remove the memory cards from their slots. The trade is successfully completed when a "Card Trade Complete" message appears on the screen.

A Deck must be fully constructed in order to participate in a duel. A Deck must contain 40 cards – limited to 3 of the same cards and only 1 card each from the Exodia Series. If you lack the necessary cards for constructing a Deck, you will not be able to play "Campaign", "Free Duel", or "2P DUEL". When trading, always make sure you have enough cards remaining to construct a Deck.

OPTIONS

This allows you to change the sound settings.
Press the Q button to return to the Title Screen.

SOUND

Use the right/left directional buttons to select either "Stereo" or "Mono".

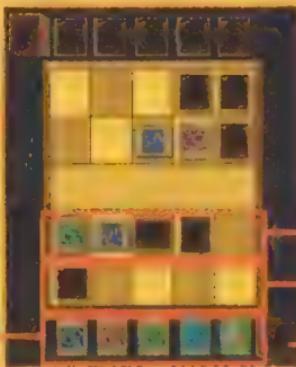

DUEL MONSTERS

"Duel Monsters" is the actual card game based on the rules and background of the Yu-Gi-Oh! animated series. The object of the game is to reduce an opponent's Life Points (henceforth referred to as "LP") to "0", using as many as 700 different cards consisting of 20 types of Monster Cards and 5 types of Magic Cards. For the PlayStation version, the rules have been modified to a low more flexibility and tactics during a battle.

WHEEL FIELD

The structure of the Duel Field is as depicted below.

DECK
These are the cards you use in a duel. Prior to commencing a duel, you must have 40 cards selected and ready from your Chest.

BASIC RULES

⑤ Duels are conducted in "Campaign" (P.13), "Free Duel" (P.15), or "2P DUEL" (P.20) modes. In "Campaign" or "Free Duel", you are awarded a card and a Star Chip each time you win. There are no card or Star Chip penalties for losing against an opponent.

⑥ Deck Construction (P.16) will be conducted prior to the start of a duel. A Deck can only contain three of the same cards. [With the Exodia series, the limit is 1 card of each type to a Deck.]

Victory Conditions

Wins and losses are decided by one of the following conditions:

⑦ Whichever player reduces an opponent's LP to "0" is declared the winner.

⑧ Whenever a player is unable to replenish a hand and start a turn with 5 cards, that player is declared the loser.

⑨ A player with a hand containing all 5 cards from the Exodia series is automatically declared a winner.

Exodia Series

When all 5 cards form a set, Exodia will be summoned!

⑩ The two opponents take turns until a winner is decided.

⑪ A player must always place a card on the Field during each turn. Whether it is a "Monster Card" or "Magic Card", there is only one opportunity to place cards – a maximum of 5 can be played – on the Field in a single turn.

⑫ There are two special ways of placing a card on the field. One is "Combo Play" and the other is "Face-down Play". "Combo Play" describes the act of playing a number of cards at once. A Combo can consist of a combination of several cards. "Face-down Play" describes the act of placing a card face-down on the Field.

⑬ When first played on the Field, a Monster Card is placed face-down. If the card is part of a Combo Play, it will automatically be turned face-up. The card will remain face-down regardless of changes between attack and defense positions.

⑭ A face-down card in the attack position will be turned face-up the moment it executes an attack.

⑮ Attacks are not necessary. You can end your turn without declaring any attacks. In short, there can be face-down or face-up cards in attack positions that do not execute any attacks.

⑯ A card in the defensive position remains face-down until attacked by an opponent. A card that is turned face-up as a result of an attack will remain face-up until a duel is completed.

Battle Results

Battle results for attacks are based on the following: (Turn: Player A)

A: Attack	B: Attack	B's card is destroyed
AP > AP		The difference in AP's is deducted from B's LP
A: Attack	B: Attack	Both A&B's cards are destroyed
AP = AP		No change in either A&B's LP
A: Attack	B: Attack	A's card is destroyed
AP < AP		The difference in APs is deducted from A's LP
A: Attack	B: Defense	B's card is destroyed
AP > DP		No change in B's LP
A: Attack	B: Defense	Situation remains unchanged
AP = DP		No changes in either A&B's LP
A: Attack	B: Defense	A's card remains unchanged
AP < DP		The difference in APs is deducted from A's LP

When A's "035 Black Magician" (AP: 2500) attacks B's "042 Illusionist Faceless Mage" (Defense Position/DP: 2200), B's "Faceless Mage" is destroyed and B's LP remains unchanged.

MONSTER CARD

Each Monster Card is classified by "Type" and "Cosmic Alignment". There are 20 Types, including Dragon and Spellcaster. Depending on the Type of card, there are situations where terrain may affect the course of a battle. Additionally, the results of a battle may be significantly affected by the advantages and disadvantages of the Cosmic Alignments of two battling monsters.

Cosmic Alignments

There are advantages and disadvantages between certain Cosmic Alignments (See Cosmic Alignment Chart). Depending on their relationship, a duel can be significantly affected. If a monster charted as "superior" attacks a monster that is "inferior", the superior monster adds 500 points to its AP. On the other hand, if an inferior attacks a superior, the superior monster adds 500 points to its DP. Monster cards have two Cosmic Alignments. The Cosmic Alignment to be used is decided when the card is brought into play on the Field. The selected Cosmic Alignment of a card cannot be changed once the card has been played on the Field.

Cosmic Alignment Chart

When Mercury's "037 Gaia the Dragon Champion" (AP: 2600) attacks Sun's "001 Blue-Eyes White Dragon" (Attack Position/AP: 3000), the "Gaia" card's AP increases by 500 to 3100, making it possible to defeat "Blue-Eyes White Dragon".

Type and Terrain Effects

Depending on a monster's Type, there are terrain advantages and disadvantages that affect the monster's capabilities. When the terrain is an advantage for a monster, both AP and DP increase by 500. On the other hand, if the terrain puts the monster at a disadvantage, the points decrease by 500. Terrain Effects are triggered for any card that is in play. There are 7 Terrain groups: Forest, Wasteland, Mountain, Meadow, Sea, Dark, and Light.

Battle it out with Duel Master K! Since Duel Master K faces you with a Deck containing the same cards as yours, this will give you an opportunity to learn how to use your cards. Watch how he plays and learn what Fusion patterns exist for your Deck.

Find a "Magic Fusion" combination! Your opponents will only attempt fusions to create monsters. Finding a "Magic Fusion" combination that'll create a powerful Magic Card that doesn't exist in your hand will give you an edge against your opponents!
